Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Utah, June 7 .- While the gathering in Provo June 15, 16, 17, 18 is a reunion of all the Eliks of the State, yet a cordial invitation to attend is extended to all the people of the State. Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of thousands of visitors and every visitor, whether Elk or not, will receive a heartly welcome, and everything that can be done will be done for the comfort and entertainment of ench and every person within the gates of the Garden City. It will be a gaia time for all, and none should feel that they will not be welcome because they do not happen to be identified with the Elks organization.
The Mayor, City Council, and Commercial club of Provo have joined in with the Elks in an effort to make this occasion one of the social events in the history of the State.
There will be four days of the high class entertainments. Loop-the-loop twice each day, Balloon ascension each day. Vaudeville and other shows running day and night. Parades band contests, Miners rock drilling contests, and other attractions too numerous to mention.
If you don't want the blues, come. If you want pleasure, happiness, health and the grandest social time you ever had, come. Excursion rates on all roads.

At the city gravel beds last Saturday afternoon E. D. Bedford of Provo Bench was severely hurt. Mr. Bedford, who is about 50 years of age, was hauling gravel for Rev. S. H. Goodwin. He had louded his wagon and as he was going down a steep incline below the gravel bed, the front wheel came in contact with a large boulder, causing the wagon tongue to break. Mr. Bedford was pitched from the wagon and his right leg fractured in three places below the knee. Dr. Aird was called and the patient is doing nicely.

Caleb Tanner, Government engineer in charge of the work on the Duchesne river, has returned. He says that four gauges have been placed, one on the Strawberry, one on Currant creek, one on the strawberry, one on Currant creek, one on the west fork of the Duchesne and one on the north fork. On account of the ruggedness of the country travel is slow. Water is high in all streams. At the north fork cattlemen are unable to cross with their herds. Indians who have crossed that section to get grass money for years now refuse to atempt the croesing. Ranges are in fine condition. Sheep and cattle never looked better.
